GETTING A KICK

Monterey and Pacific Grove residents seem to be getting a kick out of wearing overalls and shirts—or else, to get into the spirit of the fair.

Not so with Carmel folk! People here do not run to type so generally and the great majority of citizens wish to dress as they please, to wear overalls when they please or dress suits when they choose to do so.

An attempt was made to get the Carmel folk to wear costumes for the Serra festival, but it could not be done here. Carmel people as a whole wish to live here because they may live as individuals and it is probable that many will stay indoors rather than submit to the ruling of dressing like other people.

The committee, it would seem, was a little unwise in choosing overalls for ladies' costumes, since many women are not built for such apparel and will refuse to don them.

HE'S DISGUSTED

We had a caller the other day. One of the Carmel merchants dropped in to say he had read our editorial against the chain store tax and was "disgusted," and "how could anyone favor the cursed things, etc." This man's idea is that "volume and low price" are all wrong and that high prices are what the country needs.

It takes all kinds of opinions to make a world. Our opinion is that not all chain stores are bad and that not all independent stores are good.

We believe that when a store can make money by selling at low cost in volume it means that families who haven't much money can enjoy some of the good things of life along with the more fortunate; some youngsters in the less fortunate families may have the nourishing food required to make them into stalwart young men and women.

Our idea of chain stores was changed by acquaintance with two young men in New Monterey, who having learned their trade in the chain stores, set up in business for themselves and are beating the chains in price and are adding personal service.

The local merchant in question could not object to the chain stores on the ground that they are "impersonal," since he himself has little to do with the other local merchants, and does not "believe" in advertising.

The chain store tax is a discriminatory one and you can do your part by voting NO on Proposition No. 22, November 3.

HAS CREATED TRADE

We heard yesterday that England had recovered from the depression because Roosevelt had created trade. Yes, indeed, Roosevelt has created trade—for foreign countries.

COUNCIL MEETS TO TAKE UP ROUTINE

A mid-month meeting of the council was held last evening to take up routine matters, following which the council stayed and discussed a new building ordinance.

A letter from Ella Kellogg was received requesting permission to cut a small pine at San Antonio near Eleventh, which interferes with ingress and egress to the garage. The matter will be investigated by the council as a whole.

A letter from William J. Pardee, city manager of the city of Monterey, confirmed a conversation he had had with Mayor Smith in which Monterey agrees to lodge Carmel prisoners for $1.00 each for each night, and to take them to restaurants for meals, Carmel to pay for the meals and Monterey not to be responsible for loss of prisoners.

A letter from E. H. Hawthorne regarding a parking place for trailers was placed on file.

C. L. Butterfield asked transfer of license from the name of Reginald Markham to his own. This will be granted when Mr. Markham has signed the request.

The telephone company asked permission to lay an underground line on Seventh from Casanova to Camino Real, and accompanied the request with a $10 check. The city clerk was instructed to give permission when another $30 had been received from the company in accordance with the ordinance which provides that 20 cents per square foot shall be deposited as a guarantee that the work will be acceptable to the city.

Rudolph Braemer requested return of $82. which he claims is due him as a refund on his $100 deposit made when he started business in Carmel a year ago last April. The matter will be investigated farther.

It was decided to request further funds of Division of Highways for oiling the streets in Carmel.

It was decided to grant to Judge Wood upon his request a vacation for two months.

L. W. Overhulse brought up the matter of oiling Mission street and was informed that the city would do the work if the residents will pay $2 per lot for the oil used.

A letter from Edgar McLeod requested that the city make repairs on Crespi Lane, between Monte Verde and Viscaino, stating that no work had been done there for five years.

The next regular meeting will be held October 7, although there may be a called meeting soon to set the date for Judge Wood's vacation.

LIQUOR CLAUSE CASE SETTLED FOR DEFENDANT

Ruling was handed down by Judge Jorgensen last Saturday in the famous Liquor Clause case instituted by the Carmel Development company asking return of property to them because liquor is now being sold on the premises.

The case was decided for the defendants, Mrs. Isabella Leidig and Espindola's, on the ground that the plaintiff had failed to follow the plan in a number of instances. Some deeds were given which explicitly allowed for the sale of liquor. An excerpt from the ruling follows:

"This view is further substantiated by the fact that of the 26 quit claim deeds given, the one that was given before National Prohibition is the only one containing the restriction, while all 25 given after did not. This demonstrates, the court thinks, quite conclusively what was in the mind of plaintiff, not only at the time the deed to the drug store lot was executed, and that such clause was not omitted by inadvertance, but that in view of the law plaintiff considered the restrictions were no longer necessary or important. The same reasoning applies to the deeds to the school district and the water company. A company making such a large number of deeds over so great a period of time could hardly overlook the conditions restricting the sale of liquor, had it deemed the same of any importance.

"So here, where the common grantor conveyed so many lots free from the restrictions, its plan was destroyed, and by those acts it violated its implied obligation that the restrictions should be inserted in all deeds to lots in the area, and it is therefore estopped to enforce the provisions in its deed as against the defendants, and the court can not say that the purchasers could not foresee that this would happen."

GIRL SCOUT DIRECTOR COMING TO CARMEL

Miss Vaal, Stark the regional director is coming to Carmel to give a course of training to the Council, committee members and leaders. Following is her itinerary.

Tuesday, September 29th, at the Carmel Girl Scout House.

Two to four: Badges and Awards committee.

Four to five: Public Relations.

7:30 to 9:30 Leaders meetings.

Wednesday, September 30, at the Pacific Grove Girl Scout House.

SUNSET SCHOOL ELECTS OFFICERS STUDENT BODY

Student body election was held Friday of last week and Monday of this, resulting in choice of the following:

Dick Williams, president; Howard Levinson, vice president; Patsy Shephard, secretary; Bill Coffin, business manager.

The student body will assume responsibility for traffic control, corridor control, paper drive, student meetings, clean-up, and problems of importance that the children are able to meet and care for themselves.

The teachers of Sunset School had an interesting time at Indian Village Wednesday afternoon, welcoming the new faculty members, Miss Hope Thomas, Miss Alice Graham, Miss Ruth Smith and Arthur Hull.

Nine to eleven: Training and Personnel committee.

11 to 12, Finance committee.

Two to four, Camp committee.

Thursday, October 1st, at the Monterey Girl Scout House.

Nine to eleven-thirty, Leaders.

Two to two-thirty: All the Council members.

WHAT IS A HOT DOG?

We are told that beginning in November we are to have an open season on the rare little animal known as the frankfurter. It is well for us to become acquainted with some of the habits of this little beastie. The bestt ime to capture it is at the moment light dawns; as he lives under cover and only at this time does come out; then, but to feed upon ears that have been loaned. In one way it can be likened unto a fish, and that is, that it runs in schools. The hunter is warned to be very careful for it neitheir walks nor runs but crawls like a snake; always turning to the left and most of the time going around in circles. It is always in the PINK of condition and its flavor is like that of a Mos-cow. The best way to capture this creature is for the hunter to be most alert and upon seeing it LANDON it and KNOX it down with defeat.

WHAT DO THEY EXPECT?

Just what kind of a country do the Communists expect to have when the United States has turned completely to the left? Do they think they may still be able to go to police and demand protection? Do they think they will continue to be able to speak against the government and distribute literature which would tear down the government heads? We always get a laugh when we read how quickly they run to police and demand court protection as they did this week when arrested for holding street meetings in San Francisco without permission.

NEW DEAL TRAINING—

The people of this nation are going to be a lot wiser when this administration ends (and the taxpayers will be sadder) for the following accomplishments which have been taught under the federal projects:

Tap dancing for lobstermen, teaching girls to sweep under beds, privy construction, constructing bird houses, mapping ancient Greek dialects, beauty treatments for the insane, murals for prison walls, building lily ponds, checker lessons, fan dancers for CCC camps, teaching mountaineers to write poetry and tracing the origin of the diaper pin.

Charles Colvin, of San Francisco, coast manager for a fire insurance company, with Mrs. Colvin is spending his vacation in Carmel.

Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Kocher entertained a number of friends at an old fashioned barbecue Sunday afternoon at their home in the Highlands.

Alonzo F. Baker, candidate for congress may be heard each Tuesday and Thursday evening over station KQW, San Jose.

GERMAN CLASS TO BE OPENED MONDAY EVENING

The German class, under adult education, will open next Monday night in the eighth grade room at Sunset School with Mrs. Otto Koehler as instructor.

Mrs. Koehler, wife of the sculptor, has been a resident of America for the past ten years and for the past three years has made her home in Carmel. She received highest training in Germany and since coming here has been sought as a private teacher.

Mrs. Koehler stated that her main aim is to teach her students to think in German and not to translate. Her plan of having her pupils listen, practice and connect their words, as a child first learning to talk, promises to make the class interesting.

No one who is able to speak German or who would like to learn more about the language should miss the meeting next Monday evening.

Mr.a nd Mrs. J. M. Wrightson will arrive Tuesday from Carmel to spend three months here, making their headquarters at the Wishon apartments. —Fresno Bee, Sept. 18.

Mrs. Ben H. Cory and her daughters, Caroline and Edelen hace returned home after spending the summer in Carmel. —Fresno Bee, Sept. 15.

Miss Mary Louise Parson is spending this week with her father and freinds in Fresno. Mrs. Parsons is attending to the store while Miss Mary Louise takes her vacation.

Gordon Newell has purchased land in the Big Sur country and is building a home and studio there.

The new home of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Newell on Dolores street is nearing completion and promises to be quite attractive.

G. W. McFarland returned from a hunting trip in Shasta county and brought home a deer with him. He was in company with Jack Belvail who remained for a week longer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. P. Hill have gone to Washington for a visit with their son and his family. They left Hill's Corners in charge of Mrs. Rae Welch.

Mrs. Gwendolyn Stearn has returned to Carmel after an absence of some time.

Mrs. E. Abbott of Del Monte was one of the fortunate winners of a prize of $5 for the best essay on "Why I trade at chain stores," sponsored by "California's Hour."

Mrs. Nat Deverich has been a recent guest at La Playa hotel. Mr. Deverich, her husband, is manager for Joyce and Selznick, the largest agency in Hollywood.

Neighbors, did you know that automobiles can be driven faster than some people can think.

Mrs. Emma Otey is spending some time in southern California, having gone to Los Angeles to attend a meeting of the Christian Science association. She will return home about October 1.

Miss Genevieve Johnson of Seattle spent some time in Carmel last week as a guest of her cousin, Mrs. O. W. Bardarson. Miss Johnson came to take a position on the nursing staff of the Monterey hospital.

Golf News

The fortieth Amateur Golf Champion of the United States is young Johnny Fischer of the University of Cincinatti. At Garden City, New York, in a hard fought game, that carried over to the 37th hole, he defeated Jock McLean of Scotland by the narrow margin of only one up.

Now that the summer holidays with their various activities are over the weekly tournaments for women played over the Dunes Course at the Monterey Peninsula Country Club will start again. Last Friday, Mrs. Grant T. Stephenson, who is the present club Champion won the "tin-whistle" event with a score of thirty three. Mrs. Joseph Mayo was second with a thirty-two. Luncheon, now that the fog permits, is served in the grill patio after these friendly get-togethers. Bridge usually follows in he afternoon in the club house.

Monday, September 28th will be the date this year for the women golfers of the Monterey Peninsula, together with visitors from other California cities, to qualify in the 18 hole medal round for the Annual Womens' City Golf Championship which will be played over the Pacific Grove Municipal links. First match play, at scratch, will be Wednesday, September 30th. The finals taking place Friday, October 2nd. A large entry is already on hand for this popular event. The entrance fee is one dollar, and as usual there are no green fees.

RALLY DAY TO BE FEATURE OF SUNDAY SCHOOL 27TH

Sunday, September 27th, will be observed as Rally Day through the Sunday school and Worship services of the Community Church. A particular feature of the Sunday School will be "Visitor's Day" to which all parents and friends and members of the church are invited to see what the boys and girls are doing. Classes will proceed as usual after short programs in each department.

At the morning Worship Service a double quartet will sing under the direction of Mrs. Bardarson. Those in the quartet are Mrs. May Williams, Mrs. Bardarson, Ethel Irvine, Frances Schreiman, Messrs. Everett Smith, Miles Bain, Homer Bodley and Andrew Sessink.

The quartet's selection will be: "O Lord Most Holy," by Gretchaninoff.

Rev. Mr. Bodley will speak during the service on "What Do We Mean by 'Religious Education'?" At the close of the service there will be installation of teachers, including the following: Beginner and Primary superintendent, Mrs. Mabel Hart; Teachers: Beginners, Miss Anna Mae Williams; first grade, Mrs. Wermuth, second grade, Mrs. Vive Harber; third grade, Mrs. Gertrude Morehouse; secretary, Miss Jean Nye. Junior department: Mrs. Clara Nixon, superintendent. Teachers: Mrs. John Canoles, Mrs. H. S. Bodley, Rev H. S. Bodley. Mrs. Hitchcock will be substitute teacher and secretary for the Junior department.

A cordial invitation is extended to all friends of the church to be present on this special day, which begins the new year.

THE LOW DOWN from HICKORY GROVE

I don't very often do much thinkin,' much beyond my nose, and I reckon I may be just about as well off as if I was to get muself all het up over something or other, that I'd probably forget about over night anyway.

But now and then I do get to ponderin' about when old Uncle Sam is goin' to stop his tomfoolery, like gettin' into business where maybe he don't know beans about it.

I guess maybe somebody besides me is gonna have to figure out who's to pay the school teachers, and the firemen, and police, etc., when Sambo gets to runnin' everything, and nothing private is left to tax, 'cause that old boy, he don't pay taxes on anything.

And I never been able to quite savvy why people think there is graft or something in politics, like in the sheriff's office, and then go to work and figure everything is goin' to be pure and sweet when politics goes and gets itself into some even bigger ventures, like electric lights and apartment houses, and tryin' to control about everything but the weather, and even maybe that.

Us voters, we're hard to figure out.

Yours, with the low-down,
JO SERRA

ARE BANKS HONEST

Charley O'Connor, 715 Broadway put $900 into a local bank several years ago. He suspected something was going to happen and it did, so he drew out all but one dollar of his money. The bank went boom, but later, through the state superintendent of banks, Mr. O'Connor got 95 cents of his dollar. Yesterday he got another check for six cents, paying him interest on that dollar. The check was from Friend W. Richardson, state superintendent of banks. Charley will frame, not cash, the check.—L. E. Claypool in San Diego Sun.

Mrs. Milton M. Dearing and her daughter, Miss Jane Dearing, have returned home after spending a vacation in Santa Barbara. Enroute home they stopped for several days in Carmel where Miss Dearing was the bridesmaid for Miss Barbara Collins, who became the bride of Nils Gunnar Norberg. Miss Dearing spent the early part of the summer traveling in Europe after spending the past year in New York City.—Fresno Bee, Sept. 15.

Fact and Fancy

By Ye Country Correspondent

The Johnsons, Rhoda and Dick all puffed up. Fritz, the family pooch carrying his tail a mile high. The American Kennel club proved that Brenda was no novice at the game after all. She's the saucy lady dachshund who walked out of the ring at our local dog show with the coveted first prize. Not only had she to own up that she'd been there before, but has to return the Blue Ribbon and the silver cup which are Fritz' own from now on. A bitter pill for Brenda. Dick will now get to work building the Trophy Room.

A lady in distress. Libby Ley all agog. Her car met a tree stump. The tree stump wouldn't give, and the car wouldn't go. Needless to say manpower did the trick.

Conrad Immelman? (or who?) and his store all gone County Fair. Red bandana, jeans an' everything. Leave it to Conrad to be spirited about Public Doin's.

Windsor Joselyn with that knowing gleam of the eye was seen spinning a long one while downing a short quick one t'other day.

Phyllis Russell, sweet seventeen and all smiles with plenty of that honestly-come-by charm rushing the Carmel gate. Stopping long enough to deposit the old Sealyham on the bench. Toll! Or to be called for? By whom and for what we're wondering.

A look followed by yet another look, and well worth the two of them. A snappy henna hat, and a snappy henna scarf to go with a snappier yellow sport suit. Lillian Purdy you're good for the optics.

The Stantons back from Gotham. Bob bursting with bright new ideas. Ginny full of bright new gee-gaws, knock-knocks and handies.

We "herald" Janie Otto oscillating jauntily down the Main Drag with pad and pencil scenting out news items. She certainly "otto" get them.

Sunday morning frolics. A riderless horse flashing by in the forest—Jack Buttle to the rescue. Jim Carpenter using up the firm's gasoline looking for the rider only to find the horse belonged elsewhere. A long laugh from Mrs. Fitch one of our finest equestriens, but a long walk for a lone man whose name we won't mention.

Little Tinkle bell preceding man in Salvation Army outfit in and out of Ocean avenue stores. Did no one tell him the days of easy money go with the summer visitors?

A moan from Dean Arnold. Excavating for the new house going famously until a strange discovery. The house, as planned, overlaps the lot! So what! Questions! Slice off a room or buy the next sand dune?

School days are surely here again. Stacks of mail—lots of dogs—bevies of beautiful girls—a packed station wagon—and sure enough Dick Collins handling it all. And with a glow. And why not? He and his horses emptied the till and pocketed the money at the State Fair. A swell smile goes with this lad who knows all the answers.

Jack Tusler, the captain of the Nautical house on the sands of our beach has at last taken unto himself a mate. Did the upset salad bowl provide the welcome holiday knowingly, or was that just a happy co-incidence? A toast to the bride, and smooth sailing to the two of them.

"Those who use public funds to build their political machines forfeit all right to political consideration from true Americans."

THE "WOLVERINE" GOT OUT OF THE BAG

Hardly had the blow from Maine
Registered upon Jim Farley's brain
When another shock, cruel and keen
Came from the state of the Wolverine.
There the New Deal got a jolt,
The primary proved a Thunderbolt;
Jim Couzens, by the New Deal groomed,
The ballot count found him doomed,
Other Communagogs that ran,
Met rebuke in Michigan,
And Frank Murphy, the New Deal Hope,
Ran like a "mud horse" filled with dope,
They'll send him back to the Philippines,
He got nowhere with the Wolverines.
With all the money the New Deal spent,
(Taken from the people without consent),
It failed to buy the Michigan vote
And it probably has gotten Farley's "goat."
He figures that the electorate
Cannot resist the New Deal bait,
Well trained and schooled in Tammany tricks,
He considers all the voters, "hicks."
That's the essence of the Farley plan,
But it blew up in Michigan;
Five billion is a lot of Swag,
Farley thought it in the "Bag."
Demagogues and Reds gave their support,
They want to abolish the Supreme Court,
Or pack it with a bunch of pettifoggers
Subservient to the Demagoguers.
The American voter is not a chattel
To be bought and herded like hogs and cattle.
The Billions given to "Prime the Pump,"
To cause the pulse of trade to thump,
Which has been squandered in wanton waste.
And much to politics may be traced,
Bribes and Bounties—freely paid,
One continuous Treasury Raid,
America being Tammanyized,
By Farley henchmen supervised,
Every Radical and Red,
By the New Deal paid and fed.
The New Deal doctrine of Class and Hate,
Breeding strikes in every State,
Labor betrayed by cant and phrase,
The Farmer told what crops to raise,
The plots and plans of Pink Professors,
And scourge of Snoopers and Processors,
Demagogues and Mountebanks
And other freaks in the New Deal ranks.
These the facts the Voters scan
That turned the tide in Michigan.
Loyal and firm in Freedom's cause
They turned their backs on "Santa Claus,"
They saw the sham and shallow pretense
An afront to reason and common sense.
They provided the Funds for the "Bountiful Giver"
From taxes on Food, Farm and Flivver.
Michigan extended an abrupt Adieu,
To New Deal convert and Parvenue,
Jim Couzens, whatever was his ability
Has suffered from prejudice and Senility.
The Star of Hope shines bright again;
Michigan confirms the Vote or Maine.

The world-wide trend away from democracy means but one thing—that one thing is WAR. Any weakening of democracy here means the final rout of democracy everywhere. The trend against democracy must be stopped at once if the world is to escape a major catastrophe. I doubt if civilization can survive another war.—Landon.

No man's judgment is sufficiently infantile to justify giving him control—either in private business or in government—over the standard of living, the savings and the destiny of his fellow citizens. Scratch! Scratch!
"Who's there?"
"Dewey."
"Dewey who?"
"Dewey get a kind word for dog week?

It's a funny thing that us pooches are called dumb animals by our human friends, and yet we're not so dumb. We can even talk, in our own peculiar language of course. We understand each other perfectly too. When a dog says grr-r-r—to me when I'm sniffing around his private bone I know exactly what he means, and I retreat with doggerel dignity. Maybe our voices and the words we use sound strange to the human ear, but not a bit crazier than the noises that burst out of their mouths, although we try our dog-gondest to translate their foreign tongue. Some of us are pretty good at it too. Dumb? Why even the dictionary says we're, "remarkable for our intelligence and attachment to man."

Yes, sir, we give him our undying devotion, protection, companionship and respect his many moods. We accept what food and shelter he offers us gratefully and without a complaint. If he forgets to feed us, or leave any fresh water in our pans, or strikes us in anger, we forgive him. We don't even hold a grudge. We'll even starve with him and never leave his side when he needs us. Therefore in the name of humble Dogdom I make this plea to you humans who, through your greater strength, control our destinies, be kind, thoughtful and patient with your little four-footed pets, and your neighbors this week and every other week in the year. Teach your children to understand their pets, to be gentle with them and considerate of them. And remember God made us animals as well as man. Well, of course you can say He made snakes too.

And that reminds me, my office pup just romped in with a bunch of copy. The first word that caught my eye was snakes, spelled snaix.

"Mongrel," I woofed, "How do you spell snakes?"

"S n a i x," he snapped right back at me.

"That doesn't spell snakes," I barked.

"Yeah, old pit bull," he growled, "What does it spell?" And he high-tailed it out of the office.

These impudent little curs with their new-fangled uphonic spelling! It makes my hair bristle, positively!

I'm still receiving pathetic little dog-eared notes from the inmates of the Humane Society, on David avenue in New Monterey, hopefully waiting for some kind hearted person to give them a home. For only two dollars you can have your choice of canines, young or old, large or small. And by the way, a dollar sent in care of Sir Puppy Pooch to the Californian office wil buy a year's membership to the Humane Society. You'd be surprised to know how much just one dollar will help toward taking better care of the poor little waifs that are brought there. So please do your doggy part.

From New York comes this interesting news to our own Poochville. Here it is, pals, so paw over it to your heart's content. They say dog fanciers have been beating paths to the door of Louis Kiss, (now don't ask me who), since his rare female Puli gave birth to half a dozen even rarer puppies, two of which are supremely rare because they were born without tails! I wonder what they'll wag when they're happy?

The Pulis in America are a small and distinguished family. The six new additions to this canine tribe make the total of Pulis here only 17. Six of the others are owned by the Government for breeding and study purposes. Two are owned by Nicholas Roosevelt, former Minister to Hungary. And that reminds me, I haven't had my supper yet.

Well, to go on with the Pulis, they are said to be the aristocrats of the dog world. They can trace their ancestry back to the dark ages, and to Hungary from before the time that Stephen, founder of the monarchy of Hungary, established Christianity there in 996. The dogs are small and shaggy haired, known for their intelligence and courage.

I thought I knew all the breed pooches in the world but that Puli female sure has me guessing. Oh, well, live and yearn.

Embarassing moments. Went on a tear the other night with the same old gang of gay dogs to call on a lady in the neighborhood well known for her democracy, and came home without my collar!

"We will not take our economies out of the allotments to the unemployed. We will take them out of the hides of the political exploiters."

Giving Hollywood a Tumble

By Katherine Brocklebank

A few days ago I heard loud snifflings between two scenario editors of a couple of major studios. It seems they were in a devil of a mess. Two perfectly good stars dying by slow and painful degrees of inactivity, for there were no stories to be had, absolutely not a decent tale to hang on a languishing star. Over two hundred recent books had been pawed over frantically without finding one to be recommended. Plays? They wept copiously down each other's collars over the dearth of stage material. Worse than the book situation! Louder and louder lamentations.

And I'm wondering why, with all its billions of dollars, pounds, francs, marks, etc., invested in it, and its stupendous yearly income this great picture industry does not buy originals from those who write directly for the screen?

But I think I can answer that question myself. Because why should writer sell originals to picture studios when they can get several times as much money from the screen for stories or plays adaptable for picture presentation.

For a man who claims he doesn't like cigars, Robert Woolsey is the cigar-smokingest star in Hollywood, having just completed his 20,000th cigar. Real, not phony.

Strange coincidence, Lon Chaney Jr.'s first shots for "Ace Drummond" were filmed on the old "Hunchback of Notre Dame" set, the very same scene of his famous father's great success. And his uncle lives right here in Carmel. Not a coincidence.

Gloria Stuart, star of "The Poor Little Rich Girl," is the first actress to cross the San Francisco Bay bridge.

Jack Benny's first job was a prop boy in a Waukegan, Mich., theatre and he never listens to radio programs. Shake, Benny, I don't either.

Well, well, the puma and the deer that worked together in that lovely picture, "SEQUOIA" are still together in an eastern zoo—but only beacuse they are separated by a high steel enclosure. When the puma reached the age of two years he had different ideas, in fact he reverted to type. And so another pretty bubble of fancy burst.

In these days if we don't worry we don't eat; and if we do worry we don't digest the food we couldn't have bought if we hadn't worried. Ain't it hell?

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHE

"Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man the things which God hath prepared for them that love him." These words from I Corinthians comprise the Golden text to be used Sunday, September 27, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be "Reality." Included among the Scriptural selections will be: "Though I walk in the midst of trouble, thou wilt revive me; thou shalt stretch forth thine hand against the wrath of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall save me. The Lord will perfect that which concerneth me: thy mercy, O Lord, endureth for ever . . . (Ps. 138: 7, 8 to second).

The following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included: "Perfection underlies reality. Without perfection, nothing is wholly real. All things will continue to disappear, until perfection appears and reality is reached" (p 353).

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION

The United States Civil Service commission has announced open competitive examinations as follows:

Junior veterinarian; associate extension home economist (4-H club work); research associate in international relations; adjudicator. Applicants for the adjudicator examination must have had certain experience with a carrier organization in connection with such a carrier organization.

Full information may be secured from Fred Strong at the post office.

PRAIRIE FIRE

The three blind mice inspired a song
Of three long years now passed and gone
Four years more and we're beyond recall
For the "New Deal Reds" will own us all.

Their silly bunk has roused our ire,
Let's smoke them out with "Prairie Fire,"
Put a stop to the greed and rank abandon.
Who can do it? Alf M. Landon.

A penny bank will pay the difference between ordinary lighting in your home and scientifically correct better light for better sight.

For better lighting today is both sensibly reasonable as well as scientifically right. Modern lamps are without fussy, frilly shades that subdue light. Modern lamps instead have light-colored shades that are open at the top and set on higher stands to give light a chance to diffuse throughout a room.

When a Sight Meter records or measures the difference between lamps of a few years ago and the modern Better Sight lamps of today, as much as 4 to 5 times as much light for seeing, reading, sewing, etc., is produced by the modern lamp.

More than a half million Better Sight lamps were sold last year. Persons who use them say there is nothing like them. These lamps do give more light, without glare, and for just a few pennies more a day than ordinary light that so often causes squinting and eye strain.

Replace small bulbs with lamps that give MORE LIGHT

BAITING THE BAITER

We read of much comment upon the Salinas situation. It is generally agreed, and the circumstances confirm it, that a very deplorable and unnecessary condition of strife and bitter feeling exists.

In this instance, as in all others, where employer and empoyees are in controversy, both factions are partly in fault. No concessions are granted and both sides are set to win regardless of consequences or methods.

But there is another party concerned—the Public—whose rights should never be ignored. Law and Order, Security and Safety should and must be maintained. When these fail government becomes a travesty, anarchy prevails. The rights of the Public are paramount to everything else.

One thing, which both sides have shied away from, offers a peaceful and proper solution to the situation and which would have permitted without interruption the gathering and shipping of this perishable crop, and that is arbitration. If the cause is one that cannot stand the test of arbitration, there must be flaws and inequities in the contention.

The Salinas strike has provoked much newspaper commen. Didactic commentators, with little or no information, drawing on their ignorance and imagination, have written in oracular style their profound observations, mildly chiding both sides and scrupulously avoiding any show of offending either and tactfully refraining from defending the public's rights.

A case is point is Chester H. Rowell's article in Monday's Chronicle, "Frankness about Salinas." After expanding a few trite observations, Mr. Rowell focuses an attack upon Col. H. R. Sanborn, who, it seems, had been called in as a Co-ordinator. One might infer that Colonel Sanborn had upon his own initiative and without any authority injected himself into the situation. He is called a "red baiter" and by inference an attempt is made to discredit him. The "red baiter" is a popular epithet among certain flippant editors and amateurish reporters who attempt to express themselves in coined phrases and popular terms.

What is a "red baiter" anyway and does it imply any particular stigma? Who are the Reds being baited that these erudite and sensitive gentlemen of the Press are so concerned?

From what we have read Colonel Sanborn's offense lies in that he discovered Communistic activities in connection with the Salinas strike. It would seem that Organized Labor should welcome this information, the public certainly should, and steps be taken to circumvent the Reds and prevent them from taking any part in the controversy. Their interest is inimical to that of Organized Labor and the public at large. They are there to create trouble and confusion.

Mr. Rowell dubs Colonel Sanborn as a professional "red baiter" as if such an attitude were unpatriotic and pernicious, adding some gratuitous counsel that the colonel return to his proper sphere for his dubious activities.

It may well be that we have not sufficient "red baiters" in this country. Red Baiting is no craven's task. It requires fortitude and intense devotion to the country.

When an editor casts epithets as in this case, the implication is that he is in sympathy with the Reds.

Probably our prejudices against the Reds are not well founded. Mr. Rowell has frequently suggested that in his column. He has made jest of the Red menace. The stories we get from Spain may be fairy tales concocted by imaginative correspondents to frighten the timid.

The Red Peril may be all a hoax.

But, on the other hand, if the menace of the Reds is only half as serious as it appears we should honor and respect men who have the courage to oppose it and openly declare against it. Organized labor should be first among those to rally to the "Red Baiter." A Red triumph means the end of Labor unions as well as the slavery of all labor.

For one I salute, solemnly and with respect the "red baiter." He may see RED but he never turns YELLOW. If it is a disgrace to be loyal and true to your country then the "red baiter" deserves the ridicule, the jibes and censure of the gallant men of the press and should be restrained.

But seriously, this "red baiter" epithet does not appear in good taste from a supposedly sane and patriotic editor. It tacitly extends encouragement to the Red cause.

The evidence to date is all in Colonel Sanborn's favor, notwithstanding the caustic comments of the columnists. He has courage, is loyal to his country, knows his mission and is not a trimmer or a parlor alarmist. He has waged his battle in the open, unintimidated and without compromise. Daily he exposes his life, limb and safety to warn the public of a peril which we all know to be rapidly gaining headway and is already imminent. It is about time we ring the bell on these scribes who rail against "red baiting." Make them announce whether they are true blue, RED or congenitally YELLOW. These saffron-hued critics do not even amuse with their flippancies and impertinent suggestions. Let them line up with the Parlor Pinks where their sentiments and sympathies properly place them.

NO. 14400

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF MONTEREY.

ALIAS SUMMONS IN ACTION TO QUIET TITLE

Action brought in the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Monterey, and the Complaint filed in the office of the County Clerk of said County of Monterey.

JOHN H. THOMSEN, and
J. W. LENAHAN
Attorneys for Plaintiff, Monterey California.

Monterey Bank, a Corporation, Plaintiff, vs.

H. Wurzell, Lena Wurzell, John Doe and Richard Roe, defendants.

The People of the State of California to:

H. Wurzell, Lena Wurzell, John Doe and Richard Roe, defendants.

You are hereby directed to appear, and answer the Complaint in an action brought against you in the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Monterey, within ten days after service upon you of this Summons, if served within this County; or within thirty days if served elsewhere.

And you are hereby notified that unless you appear and answer as above required, the said plaintiff will take judgment against you for any money or damages demanded in the Complaint as arising upon contract, or will apply to the Court for any other relief demanded in the Complaint.

The object of said action is to quiet title of plaintiff to the premises and real estate in the Complaint in said action and hereinafter described, and to determine all and every claim, estate, lien or interest therein of the defendants, and of each of them, that it be declared and adjudged by Decree of said Court that the Defendants and that each and all of them have no estate, right, title, claim or interest whatsoever in or to said lands nor in or to any part thereof, nor any lien thereon; and that the defendants and each and all of them, be forever estopped and debarred by said Decree from asserting any right, title, claim, estate or interest whatsoever in or to said lands and premises and in or to any part thereof adverse to plaintiffs and for such other relief as to said Court shall seem meet and agreeable to equity.

The premises and real property affected by said action consists of that certain real property situate in the County of Monterey, State of California, particularly described as follows, to-wit:

Lots 13 and 14, Block 1, as shown on "Map of La Loma Terrace being the Eleventh Addition to Carmel-by-the-Sea, Monterey County, California," filed April 6, 1925, in the office of the County Recorder of the County of Monterey, State of California, in Map Book Three, Cities and Towns, at Page 25.

Given under my hand, and the Seal of the Superior Court of said State of California, in and for the County of Monterey, this 13th day of August, 1934.

READ THESE FACTS

Hiding under the innocent title of "Retail Store License," Proposition #22 on the November ballot is really a new scheme for taxing the public.

Proposing to tax individual stores $1 a year and chain stores $500.00 for each store over nine, it has been petitioned against by 136,000 Californians because . . .

It Would Raise Prices
The U. S. Federal Trade Commission says: "If the ability to undersell, based on greater efficiency or on elimination of credit and delivery cost, is destroyed by taxation, it is the consuming public which will really pay the tax and not the chain."

It Would Be Unfair
Not a tax for revenue, not based on the ability to pay—it is an attempt to use the taxing power to destroy competition.
Small chain stores would be taxed up to 500,000 times as much per dollar of sales as big department stores.

It Would Hurt California
Chain stores now benefit California consumers, farmers, employment, property owners, taxpayers and investors. To cripple them is to hurt all California business.

National Balance Sheet

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT

Born of an aristocratic and wealthy family. Has never known the true value of money. His family fortune was left him in trust. Has had an unprecedented career in wasteful and political spending both in New York and Washington.

President Roosevelt has made an all-time record in increasing the public Debt, and for unprecedented taxation. The National Debt is now close to the thirty-five billion dollar mark. In three years, during peace time, this government has spent more money than the aggregate amount spent by all the Governments in the hisory of our Nation for a period of 124 years, from 1789 to 1913. President Roosevelt seems to think that willingness to throw other people's money around without any consideration of value received is a peculiar sign of a pure heart. The average American family spends one-fourth of its income for taxes, most of which are assessed to them by indirect methods of which the family is not at first conversant but which will become more and more apparent as time goes on.

He is passessed of an obsession for political power. Would sacrifice the constitutional rights on which this country was founded to win dictatorial power.

Under President Roosevelt's regime Soviet Russia has been recognized and a great impetus to Communism in our country has been given. President Roosevelt has referred to the Constitution of the United States as a relic of the "horse and buggy days." Inquisitorial committees, such as the Black Committee, organized for political purposes, have been allowed to function, and strong efforts have been made toward the supression of free speech.

ALFRED M. LANDON

Born of humble parentage. He has been obliged to make his own way in the world. He has created a national reputation for himself as Governor of Kansas in balancing the State budget, reducing taxes, and in economy of administration.

Governor Landon has had a cross-section experience with all grades and conditions of men, having been a farmer and oil operator, as well as a business man before entering politics. Landon's record shows he has been a friend of Labor. He never thinks of men in terms of class. His class feeling is related to the difference between crooks and honest men. Before he forms an opinion from written documentation, he wants human documentation.

He has no political "tricks of trade" and indulges in no compromises on fundamental issues in order to get results. He subordinates personal advantage to the public good.

Governor Landon is an exponent of the American System on which this country was founded. He is a great believer in "human rights." He states his belief in the Constitution in the following words which are quoted from his Kansas Day address January 30, 1936.

"Let me make this emphatic; the Constitution of the United States is not an obstacle to progress. It is the balance wheel of progress.

FROM APATHY TO ACTION— MUCH SMOKE, SOME FIRE

Designed to prove that Communists have participated in or given encouragements to labor controversies in California involving hundreds of thousands of workers, the Associated Farmers of California have made public at its State headquarters in San Francisco a chart detailing records that it is said have been taken exclusively from the official Communist newspaper, the Western Worker. In a preface to the chart, this statement is made:

"This chart lists strikes called in California during the period of Mar. 1934 to July 1936, and in which Communists participated, or to which Communists gave encouragement. The record is made entirely from files of the 'Western Worker', official organ of the Communist Party, U. S. A. District No. 13. It is not a complete record of labor controversies. However, it is a very startling expose of Communist activities and taken exclusively from their printed records. Involved were more than 250,000 workers.

The chart has been presented in lithostatic form, giving the date when the strike started, the union, if any, involved, the number of workers called out, and the date of the conclusion of the strike. The record is incomplete in some particulars, it is stated, because no information is given except that actually made available in the columns of Communist publications.

MISS PERKINS AND THE COMMUNIST MANIFESTO

A news dispatch (Chicago Tribune April 9, 1935) headed "Woman Accuses Miss Perkins of Soviet Drive", reported a meeting in New York at which "Miss Perkins outlined provisions in the social security bill for old age pensions, unemployment insurance, and unprotected children etc". At the end of her address she consented to answer questions. A young woman asked: "Have you read Karl Marx Manifesto"?

"Before Miss Perkins could answer the young woman said: "Karl Marx Manifesto," page 30, proposes the same program that you have just outlined. How can you support the same program when you know that it is the same as Karl Marx'?

"I am supporting it", Miss Perkins replied, "Because I'd rather see it in reality than on page 30."

PEDESTRIAN TOLL SWELLS

When pedestrians in cities cross against signals and in the middle of the block they indulge in practices that are extraordinarily dangerous. As proof of this, the rate of death per pedestrian accident involving crossing against signals was 55 per cent worse last year than when crossing with signals, states an automobile club safety bulletin.

This knocks the theory that it is foolish for a pedestrian to wait at an intersection for the signal to flash "Go".

What about crossing in the middle of the block? That's jaywalking — the lowest form of pedestrian practice. Last year's record shows that the ratio of death per pedestrian accident crossing in the middle of the block was 200 per cent worse than crossing at intersections with the "Go" signal.

How much longer will pedestrians who regard themselves intelligent ignore the facts—the handwriting on the wall?

As for the poor pedestrian who has to use the traveled portion of the highway — the rate of death per accident under such circumstances was 278 per cent worse last year than the average of all pedestrian accidents. No highways should be improved or built without constructing at the same time pedestrian sidewalks. Pedestrians should protect themselves so fas as possible by walking against traffic instead of with traffic.

Every pedestrian should at least try to safeguard his life.

PENINSULA RESIDENTS TO HAVE U. C. COURSE

A University of California Extension Division Course in the technique of the short story, conducted by Miss Maren Elwood, will open in Monterey, Saturday, September 26th, Extension Division officials announced today.

The course, which will be held on Saturday at 8 p. m. in the music room of Monterey High School at Monterey, will deal with problems in plotting, plot patterns and marketing with analysis of current published stories.

Miss Elwood, an expert on short story writing and marketing, has conducted classes in writing for the Extension Division in San Francisco and Oakland for several years. A number of her own stories have been published in America and Canadian periodicals. She is also a former member of the faculty of Mills College.

The enrollment fee for the ten meetings of the course will be $6.00 plus the annual registration fee of $1.00 which entitles students to enroll in any Extension Division course during the academic year 1936-37. Those who wish to "sample" the course before enrolling may attend the first meeting without charge, extension division officials announced.

LEGION HALL FINISHED; TO HAVE GALA OPENING

A big time is being planned for the formal opening of the Legion hall which has undergone extensive repairs during the past several weeks. The date has been announced as October 10, when a dance and floor show will entertain those who will gather in with the members on this gala occasion.

Tickets have been printed and are in the hands of members. One dollar will entitle you to all the fun that can be crammed into one evening, and the money will go toward replenishing the building fund.

In June, 1933, the nations of the world were assembled at the London economic conference for the specific purpose of reversing the world trend toward nationalism and war. Our government had taken a leading role in preparing for this conference. The outlook for success was favorable. That great opportunity was lost * * because the President of the United Staes turned his back upon this international co-operative effort. That was the time we abandoned the true foundations of world peace.—Landon.

BULLETIN ANNOUNCES NEW YORK STYLE SHOW

Coming to the desk of the Californian this week was announcement of a fall fashion show to be held in New York September 21 to 26.

The following excerpts are presented as being of interest to women readers of this issue:

"Black, and a wide range of vineyard shades will be shown in formal and informal costumes from morning to night * * suits, coats, frocks, and even pajamas. For evening wear, black, silver lame, tapestry damask and cardinal red will be stressed. The importance of jackets will be emphasized.

"The Show will be presented in six episodes. The first of them, "Silhouettes," will emphasize the new slender waists, flared skirts, tunics, peplums, square and peaked shoulders, princess cut frocks, and full backed coats.

"For the woman who wishes one good costume on which she can ring changes, "Tricks," will present a number from which to choose. Outstanding among these will be a grape colored crepe evening dress which adds a waist length coat, a hat, and furs, to double as the perfect dinner and theatre costume.

"The episode, "Black," will sum up the elegance of this season's clothes. Unrelieved as to color, the black dresses are trimmed with soutache or shoe polish braids, stitched black velvet bands, frogs, and even crocheted pockets and buttons.

"In contrast with these black frocks will be the gowns shown in "Changes from Black." This group will include black costumes with touches of color in all the high fall shades, coronation blue, British tan, rust, soft greens and reds.

"Men's fashions, including both ready made and custom tailored suits, shirts, ties and overcoats, will also be shown during the six days. New fashions are the double breasted tuxedo and the guard's coat, inspired by the coats of the Horse Guard at Buckingham Palace."

ARE YOU A SAFE DRIVER?

Here are 12 qualifications of a Safe Driver. See how near you come to filling the bill, suggests the Public Safety Department of an automobile club.

He is alert.
He observes traffic signals.
He is sober.
He plays fair with other drivers.
He stays in line.
He slows down when approaching schools.
He doesn't speed.
He drives carefully.
He knows his signals and always uses them.
He shows full consideration to pedestrians.
He knows the road ahead is clear before he passes other cars.
He is always prepared for emergencies on the road.

What is your score? How many of these qualifications do you possess? See if you can be a safe driver and help reduce accidents.

LOCAL RED CROSS SWINGS INTO ACTION, ROLL CALL

At a recent meeting of the Executive committee, Carmel Chapter of American Red Cross, Mrs. Karl Rendtorff, chapter chairman, announced the appointment of the following personnel to perfect the campaign organization for the annual November Roll Call:

General campaign chairman, Mrs. Herbert John Morse; Vice chairman in charge of district organization, Miss Elizabeth Todd; campaign director, C. W. Lee.

It was pointed out that Red Cross had met its duty to Carmel during the past year through its comprehensive relief program. That undernourished children had been given milk, clothing furnished the needy, food to the unemployables and hospitalization and medicine to the sick. The year's fund has been expended wisely in the community. Red Cross is the only relief agency functioning in Carmel outside the Federal aid.

The slogan for this year's national roll call is "The People's Red Cross." At least five million adult members are needed nationally to carry on a wide range of humanitarian service to the American people, says Admiral Cary T. Grayson, chairman, American Red Cross, Washington.

Carmel chapter's quota toward the five million objective is 500 members.

During the past year American Red Cross gave assistance to 131,000 families numbering 550,000 persons as a result of 150 disasters. The greatest of these were the Eastern spring floods and the tornados in the south.

Assistance was given to 316,233 ex-service men or their families.

Red Cross workers dealt with problems of 41,315 men in the Army, Navy, Marine corps and Coast Guard.

Two hundred and twenty-two thousand persons were given instructions in First Aid.

Red Cross Life Saving service enrolled 80,961 life savers after instruction.

Over 1,000 Highway First Aid stations have been opened with fifteen thousand as the objective.

Red Cross Public Health Nurses gave care to 233,616 persons and made over a million visits to or in behalf of the sick. Maternity and infant care was given in isolated communities and drought-stricken areas.

The Junior Red Cross carries on work in 34, 882 schools. It has 8,351,298 children enrolled.

The local committee will need a larger budget to take care of next year's need and it is depending upon our citizens to meet that need when the call comes in November.

Mrs. Ray Moore left today for a visit with her sister in Oakland.

COMMUNITY CHURCH WILL HOLD BIG FOOD SALE

A hundred women, and even several men, have put on their aprons and lit their ovens in preparation for the sale of cakes, pies, salads, meat loaves, beans, macaroni, candy, and "what-have-you" to be given by the Community Church next Saturday, September 26th at the Carmel Garage, corner of Ocean and San Carlos near the Post Office.

Under the direction of Mrs. Jettie Tuthill, nothing has been overlooked in planning this event. The Soliciting Committee, consisting of Miss Clara Hinds, Mrs. George Beardsley, Mrs. Mabel Turner, Miss Williston, Mrs. E. A. Morgan, and Mrs Everett Smith, have made every effort to find the best cooks in the village. If you have been overlooked here is an opportunity to show what you can make. It is not too late to call Mrs. Tuthill and tell her that you have something ready.

Those who will smile at you back of the counters will be Mrs. Edna Lockwood, Mrs. Gertrude Bardarson, Mrs. Amy Mylar, Mrs. Alice Askew, Mrs. Dorothy Hilbert, Mrs. Ruth Sessink, Mrs. Gertrude Moorehouse, Mrs. Marjorie Bodley, and Miss Agnes Williston. They will open the doors at 10 o'clock Saturday morning and will be a constant invitation to passers-by, to make them "buying passers."

Mrs. Lido Warner has made several distinctive posters on display through down-town shop windows. Mr. Bardarson and Mr. Bodley have also served in the capacity of publicity agents. Mr. Levinson has been exceedingly kind in permitting the use of his show window.

Plan to buy your Sunday dinner at the Community Church Food Sale—open all day Saturday.

Robert Edgren, Jr., artist, musician and writer, and son of the creator of "Miracles of Sport", has been engaged to do transcripts of his father's cartoon for radio listeners. Mr. Edgren took one of the leading parts in Katherine Brocklebank's play, "Modern Daze," presented in Carmel about a year ago.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Thoburn are spending a few days at their ranch in Sonoma county.

PINE BEETLE BIDS FAIR TO PUT END TO TREES

The homely packing crate, the juniors' soap box scooter, and the poor man's fire-wood may disappear unless something is done soon to curb the spread of the pine bark beetle in California and western pine forests.

To stop the beetle and save California's pine forests, source of millions of crates, boxes and containers used in shipping the State's huge production of fruits and vegetables, the State Chamber of Commerce has arranged for visits to the infested forests by Washington officials of the Department of Agriculture.

"These officials," said Teague, "will be presented with ample visual evidence of the widespread destruction and be shown reports of the state chamber indicating that the present rate of destruction by the beetle in the pine forests is equal to the annual new growth and fire destruction. The problem is of immediate importance to most of California's agriculturists who depend upon white pine boxes and containers in their fruit harvests and shipments."

OLD "INDIAN SIGNS" DOWN TO PRESENT

One of the interesting things the Californian scout learned this week concerned the Hudson's Bay "Point" blankets. When Hudsons first began selling their blankets, December 22, 1779, they had many Indians to deal with. To "shelf mark" their goods as do the cash and carry stores today, the company wove into their blankets the number of indigo lines indicating the price of the merchandise. Three lines meant it was worth three beaver skins; four, four beaver skins, etc. The company still carries the mark on their blankets, but today the points are used to indicate size and weight. These blankets may be seen at Stella's, Ocean and Dolores.

Carmel is to have another addition to her literary colony. Don Lewis, who fell in love with the city while visiting here, has purchased land and will build a home.
